Professional summary

Don't be fooled when viewing any part of my resume. When a company hires me, they get double the asset they intended. I'm usually applying for different kinds of positions, in varied industries which spark my interest.

My whole life I have been addicted to anything with value. Cars interested me because in reality its the average persons second biggest asset, behind their homes. With that in mind the true basics of society, and what keeps it moving came to my attention. Do you have a job that may interest me? Please don't hesitate to contact me!
